LEARN ABOUT REPORTING OPTIONS

Reports help to build a safer community. You may report sexual misconduct to the University, the police, or both (recommended).

- Reporting to the University
  You can confidentially report a concern at miami.edu/titleix or call 305-284-8624. Filing a report does not mean that formal disciplinary action will be taken; it is up to you to decide if and how to participate in the University’s investigative process.
  Title IX Office
  305-284-8624
  titleixcoordinator@miami.edu

- Reporting to the Police
  Contacting the police is especially important if you think you may want to seek legal action against the perpetrator. In the event of an emergency, call 911. If a non-emergency:
  Coral Gables Campus
  (University of Miami Police Department)
  305-284-6666
  Marine Campus (Public Safety)
  305-710-7991
  Medical Campus (Public Safety)
  305-243-6000

- Supportive measures are administrative actions that can help you feel safe on campus. To inquire, contact the Title IX office at 305-284-8624.
  Examples include:
  - No contact orders
  - Facility access restrictions
  - Change in housing, class, or employment arrangements to minimize interaction between individuals
