

MARIA SEVILLA NAMED UNIVERSITY DEPUTY TITLE IX COORDINATOR

Maria Sevilla has joined the University's Title IX Office as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator, effective June 17, 2019. Prior to accepting this role, Maria was the Title IX Investigator within the Division of Student Affairs, a role she held for nearly 5 years.

In her new role as Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Maria will help oversee the University's awareness and prevention efforts to address sexual misconduct across all university campuses and for all community members. Specifically, Maria will be responsible for facilitating the development of University-wide Title IX policies and procedures; implementing Title IX training schedules; and coordinating response, investigation, and tracking of sexual misconduct complaints received by the University.

Maria reports to Beverly Pruitt, Assistant Vice President for Workplace Equity and Title IX Coordinator, and will work closely with the Division of Student Affairs and the Office of Faculty Affairs, the Area Deputy Title IX Coordinators and Title IX Liaisons, and multiple campus and community partners and committees including the President's Coalition for Sexual Violence Prevention & Education, and the University's Title IX Committee.

Maria graduated from Georgetown University, where she obtained a bachelor's in government, and a minor in justice and peace studies. Maria graduated from Georgetown Law School in 2014 and is a current member of the Florida Bar Association. Before coming to UM, Maria worked at Dade Legal Aid representing victims of domestic violence in civil court. Maria enjoys biking, yoga, volunteering, and spending time with family and friends.

For additional information on the University's Title IX efforts please visit titleix.miami.edu. If you have any questions, please email titleixcoordinator@miami.edu.